

National Patriotic Group Singing Competition

September 29, 2024

“Music expresses that which cannot be put into words and that which cannot remain silent.” – Victor Hugo

Bharat Vikas Parishad (BVP) is a non-profit, socio-cultural organization founded in 1963 in India. Its primary objective is to promote national unity, social welfare, and community development. Bharat Vikas Parishad organizes the National Patriotic Group Singing Competition every year across the country to keep the tradition of music alive among the students. The objective of this competition is to promote patriotism and nationalism among youth through music.

Students of Adani Public School participated in National Patriotic Group Singing Competition organized by Bharat Vikas Parishad. It was held on September 29, 2024 at Saraswati Vidhya mandir Mundra. Altogether there were 17 schools. Under the guidance of our music teachers Mr. Parag Sompura and Mr. Durgesh Mali our students performed extremely well. The group grabbed the first place in Sanskrit Patriotic Song and second runner up position in Hindi Patriotic Song. They once again proved that Adani is the best!

The competition successfully promoted patriotism and nationalism among youth, showcasing exceptional talent and dedication to nation. (Director of Kutch region) Ms. Meeta Jadeja, (Director APS) Ms. Ami Shah, (Principal) Mr. Hemant Kumar Sharma and (Vice Principal) Dr. Renu Patidar congratulated the students and music department for their success.

