Happy Gandhi Jayanti & Navratri!!!

The week is dedicated to "Swachhta" cleanliness and "Garba" celebrating and praying Goddesses in traditional ways. Celebrations for children are always connected with wearing new clothes, eating variety of dishes especially sweets and to be happy.

Both the celebrations teach us many lessons for our life which are passed from generations to generations traditionally.

With the beginning of the festive season, we should also take-up the responsibility of maintaining cleanliness of our surroundings, ensuring safety of our kids and protecting our environment from any type of pollution.

Let our kids learn respecting not only elders but also our rich and scientifically proven Culture & Value System.

Happy Celebrations!!!
